

Drama 8

Introduction to Drama

New 2-hour course!

What you'll learn:

- improvisation OR how to think on your feet!
- how to work together creatively with other students in groups
- a better understanding of yourself and the world around you
- characterization using voice, body, and imagination
- an understanding of theatre's role in society
- use of voice projection and articulation for clear and effective speech
- how to use your experiences, emotions, and intellect as creative material

Course Content:

What we'll do

1: Duet Together

- Work with a partner to analyze a scene and prepare a performance!

2: Origins of Improvisation

- Become wild comic characters with lots of fun physical comedy!

3: Get it Together

- Work with a small group to prepare an original scene!

4: On My Own

- When you're ready, perform your very own speech or monologue!

A stylized illustration of a stage. At the top, there are orange, scalloped curtains. A dark grey background represents the stage floor, with a bright spotlight beam shining from the right side. In the center, a white rectangular sign with a dark border hangs from the ceiling. The sign contains the text "Your spotlight awaits..." in a dark grey font, and "Sign up for drama today!" in a large, bold, orange font. At the bottom of the image, there is a row of various hand-drawn arms and hands in different poses, some with patterns on the sleeves, and small starburst symbols scattered above them.

Your spotlight awaits...
Sign up for drama today!